

NH Foods Group

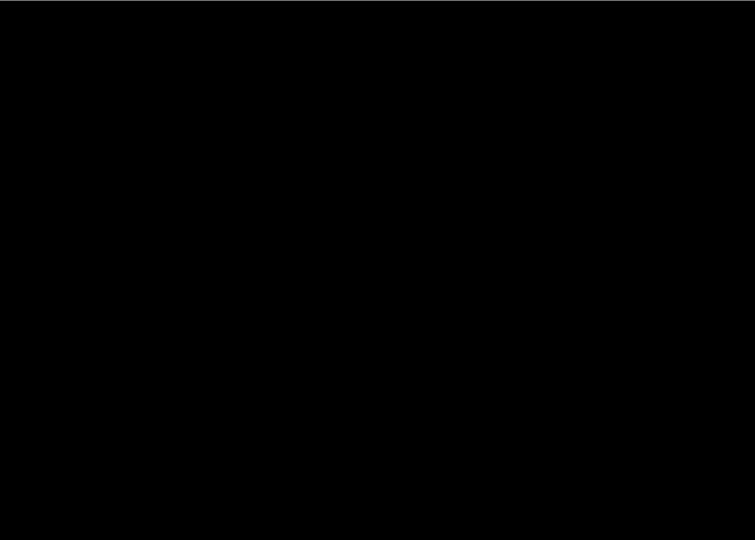

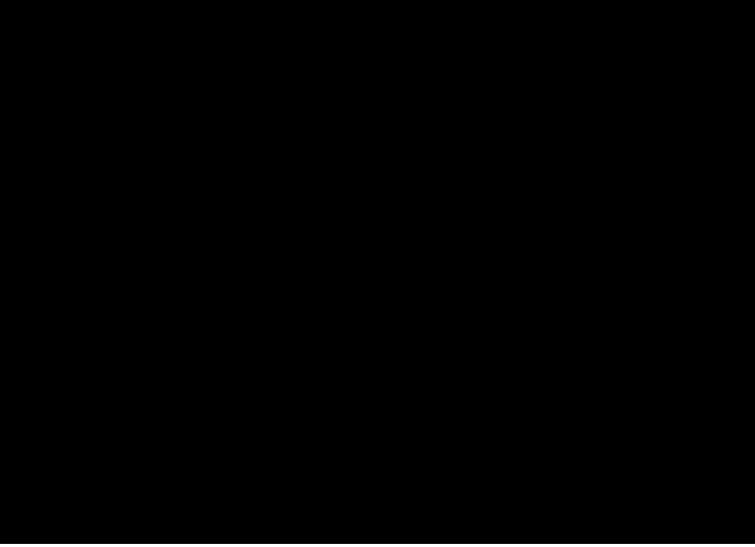

Main Improvements in the 2024 Report (Contd.)

The theme for the Medium-Term Management Plan is “working together to create value”. The report includes several special features focusing on examples of this approach, including a major co

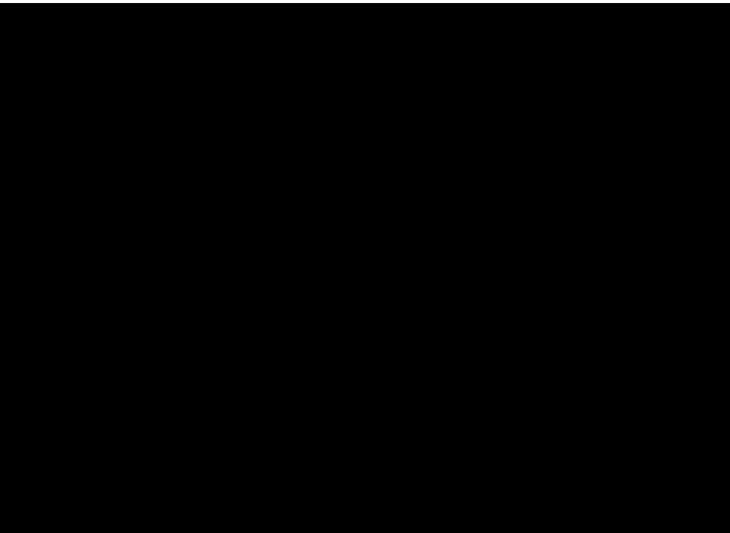

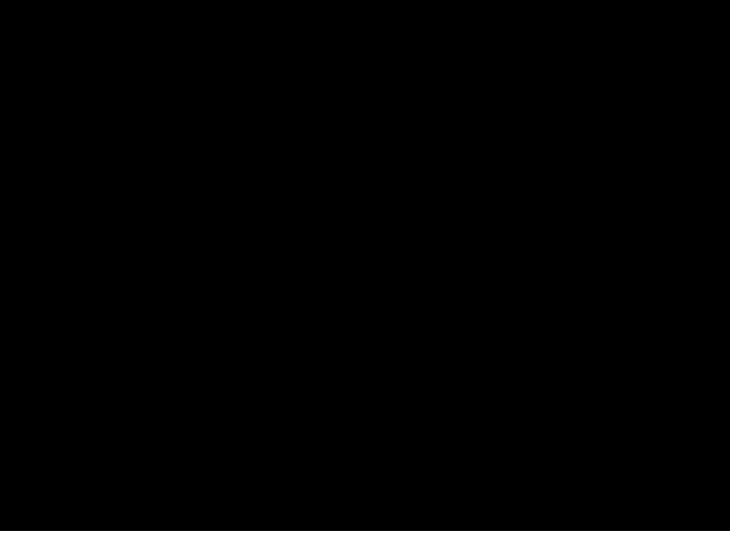

A message from the President

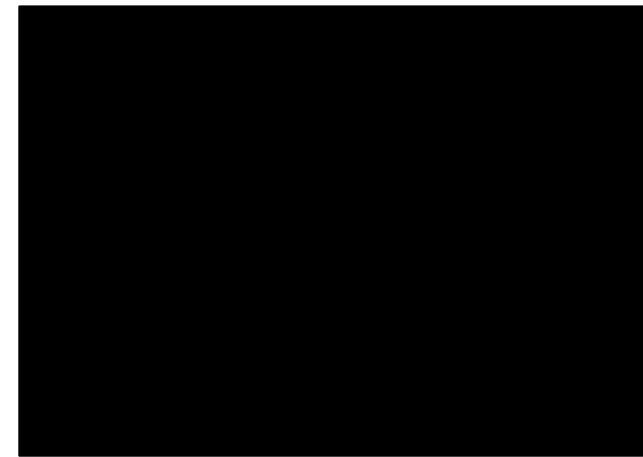

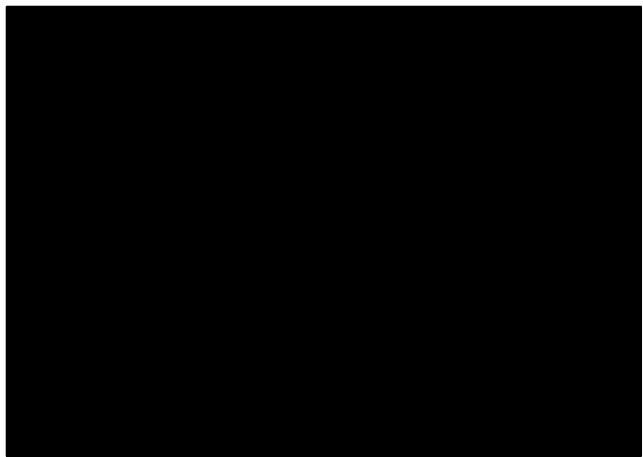

Management's explanation of the specific strategies and initiatives through which the NH Food Group will realize its commitment to new

Value creation process

Overview of value creation through invested capital business models, and its va

Ending message

